The Spiritual Companionship Program has the following formal requirements for admission. Please comment on each. Where do you stand in relation to each of these requirements?

1). Completion of Foundations in Spirituality and not more than two missed sessions:

2). Commitment to regular prayer practice and reflection on being a spiritual companion to others:

3). Willingness to participate in all aspects of the program including written papers and Peer Group Presentations and feedback process:

(continue)

4). Participation in personal companioning relationship or individual or group spiritual direction during the program:

5). Attendance at all sessions: (How does the program schedule fit your calendar?)

6). Participation in an annual silent directed retreat sponsored by Dominican Center.

7). Recommendations: (Are these completed)?

8). Additional comments/personal observations as to readiness for Spiritual Companioning:

(continue)

Please expand your ideas to one page on the following. Thank you.

How would you name, image or symbolize the movement of God in your spiritual journey over the past several years? Try not to focus on the external journey. Rather, what have you noticed in your “interior journey” and prayer life?
